

Research Paper Packet

Your research packet, which should be a manila envelope, should contain all of the materials you have compiled and completed for this project.

This includes:

- 10 bibliography cards (more if you found more sources)
- 25 or more note cards
- Photocopied of ALL research used in your essay—this includes any book or magazine pages and printouts of all internet pages used
- Checked rough draft of your essay with marks or notes on what to change
- Final draft in proper format with attached works cited

10 points will be deducted for any missing portions of your research packet. The rubric given to you will be used in assessing your term paper and points will be deducted for all faults found during grading according to the following:

- 10 points each page—All pages under the required 4
- 5 points each page—Improper page format.
- 3 points each—Any improperly formatted citations (including block quotations).
- 3 points each—Any citations not accompanied by a bibliography and note card.
- 5 points each—Any citation not found on the works cited page.
- 1 points each—Spelling errors.
- 1 points each—Sentence fragments, run-on sentences, and comma splices.
